FOREWORD

FOR THOSE MEMBERS of the family who may desire to have our basic genealogy, I have carefully compiled these family records. They begin with our European background and the earliest known information relative to our ancestors in America. Some of the records are carried out through eleven and twelve generations, covering a span of almost four hundred years.

I OFFER THIS WORK, not as a complete record of the PEPPER FAMILY, but as an incentive for younger members to continue the search for new knowledge of our ancestors and their traditions. In genealogical research there is a special and unique fascination. It is also of great interest and strengthens our faith in immortality as we make the personal acquaintance of kindred long dead to this world. From them we learn more of ancestral courage, patriotism, and fidelity. It must not be ignored that our family history is interwoven with that of our country as the roots strike deep into Colonial times. Hence, the recent revival of interest in our genealogy is most creditable to everyone.

ADDITIONAL, PERTINENT INFORMATION pertaining to any individual member of the family, whether it be of direct or collateral lineage, can easily be inserted into this folio. The data herein contained were collected in many ways and from various sources. Considerable information has been obtained from our older, living members and recorded here for future reference. It may sometimes disagree because one branch of the family disagrees as to dates and names of grandparents, and frequently it is impossible to determine which record is correct. Then again, a later record may be a correction or a false copy of an earlier record. (Even Bible records are sometimes copied from one Bible to another with resulting errors.) From one cause or another, "errors and omissions" will be found. But I have tried to hold them to a minimum and ask for your forbearance.

FOR MANY YEARS the late Judge David T. Marvel worked on some of these data and gathered interesting information. For his efforts and accomplishments and to the immediate members of the family we owe our deepest feeling of gratitude.

SPECIAL MENTION OF CREDIT should be given to Ellen Pepper Penuel for her interest and untiring patience in keeping our genealogy up-to-date. I regret that I have been unable to contact all of the living descendants to learn the current marriages, births, and deaths but hope that the basic information given herewith may be of interest.

TO ALL OF THE FAMILY MEMBERS who so generously assisted me in this work by their contributions of data, I wish to express my sincere thanks and deep appreciation.

Faithfully,

EUROPEAN BACKGROUND

EUROPEAN BACKGROUND OF THE PEPPER FAMILY

The surname "Pepper" is derived, according to Bardsley, from the occupation of "the pepperer", a spicer. The suffix "er" was lost in the course of years and the name assured its present form.

In the latter part of the thirteenth century (1275) the name appears simultaneously in County Hunts and in Lincolnshire; later (1379) it is found in Yorkshire; and by the last quarter of the sixteenth century (1573) it had reached London. Joseph Foster, in his Visitation of Yorkshire, gives a chart of a family of the name settled at East Cowton; the earliest is SIR CUTHBERT PEPPER. In 1597, a Cuthbert Pepper of Graies Inn, Middlesex, appears as a party to a deed. The Visitation of Lincolnshire also gives a chart. It begins with RICHARD PEPPER of Tenterden in Kent and descends through his son John Pepper of Thoresby in County Lincoln. Copies of these charts are shown on pages 4 and 5. The coat of arms of this branch of the family is as follows:

Quarterly, one and four, gules, a griffin sergeant or, over all a bend argent. Two and three, vair argent and sable forward. (Ward of Thoresby)

Crest: A stag trippant, argent.

Motto: Semper erectus.

(Ref.: Colonial Families of the United States, Vol. VII)

Families of this name were to be found at early dates in the English counties of Kent, Hunts, Leicester, York, Lincoln, Norfolk, and in London, as well as in various parts of Ireland at slightly later dates. For the most part, they were of the landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Britain.

One of the earliest lines of the family in England was that of Richard Pepper of County Kent before the year 1500. He married Elizabeth Short and was the father by her of John (died in infancy), another John, Stephen, Philip, Margaret, and Anne. The first son to grow to maturity, John, settled in Lincolnshire and married Margaret Ward, by whom he was the father of Thomas, Dorothy, and Anne. Thomas married Marie, the daughter of Sir Thomas Mussenden, and was the father by her of Richard and Anne, of whom the first married Frances Meeres and had issue by her of Richard, Daniel, Susan, and Jane. The first, Richard, was the father by his wife Anne Towneley of Henry, Frances and Elizabeth, of whom the first married about 1630 to Jane Holby and was the father by her of Robert and Katherine.

One John Peper was living in Leicestershire in the early sixteenth century and was the father of a son named Thomas, who married Isabella Bugg by whom he had issue of another Thomas, who married Maria Shefield and was the father by her of William, Jane, Robert, John, and Emma, of whom the first son died without issue and the second, Robert, was married before 1606 to Katherine Mansfield, by whom he had issue in the early seventeenth century of Robert, Thomas, and Richard.

About the middle of the sixteenth century, one Sir Cuthbert Pepper of Yorkshire married Margaret Wydale, by whom he had issue of Robert, Christopher, John, Ann, and Dorothy, of whom the first married Margaret Wytham before 1609 and was the father by her of Cuthbert, Dorothy, and Margaret.

One William Pepper is said to have come from England to Delaware in the latter part of the eighteenth century and to have later removed to Virginia where he was the father of a son, also named William, who married one Mary Johnson and was the father by her of William, Scarber, Parker, Vina, Anna, and Johnson, of whom the last was the progenitor of the West Virginia branch of the family.

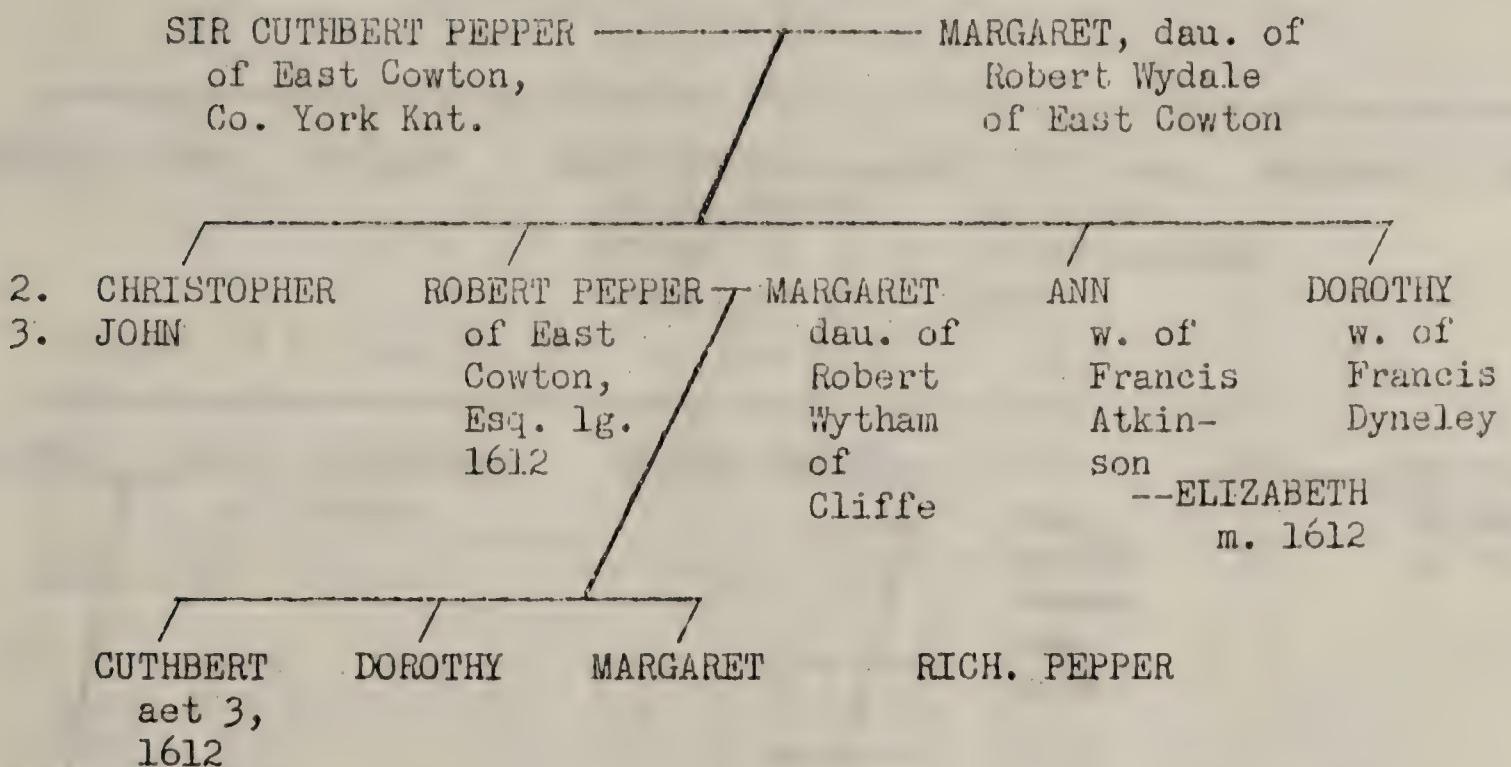

Irish Captain George Pepper is said to have settled in County Neath about 1666 with his wife Hannah. They bore five children. One son, John Pepper, became a major general of the Royal Irish Hussars. Another son, Gilbert Pepper, settled in Dublin. He married Evelyn Parks and they bore two children, of whom a son, Simeon Pepper, married Rose Lambert, daughter of the Hon. Oliver Lambert, in 1688, and they bore four children.

Abraham Peper, Dutch settler in Island of Welcherer, Province of Zeeland, emigrated to America in 1802, age forty-five years, and settled in New York State. He married Willamina Blomert in 1784.

It is not definitely known from which of the many illustrious lines of the family in Great Britain and other parts of Europe all of the early emigrants of the name to America were descended. But it is generally believed that all of the Peppers, and possibly a few of the Pepers, of America were of extremely ancient English lineage and probably of common origin at a remote period.

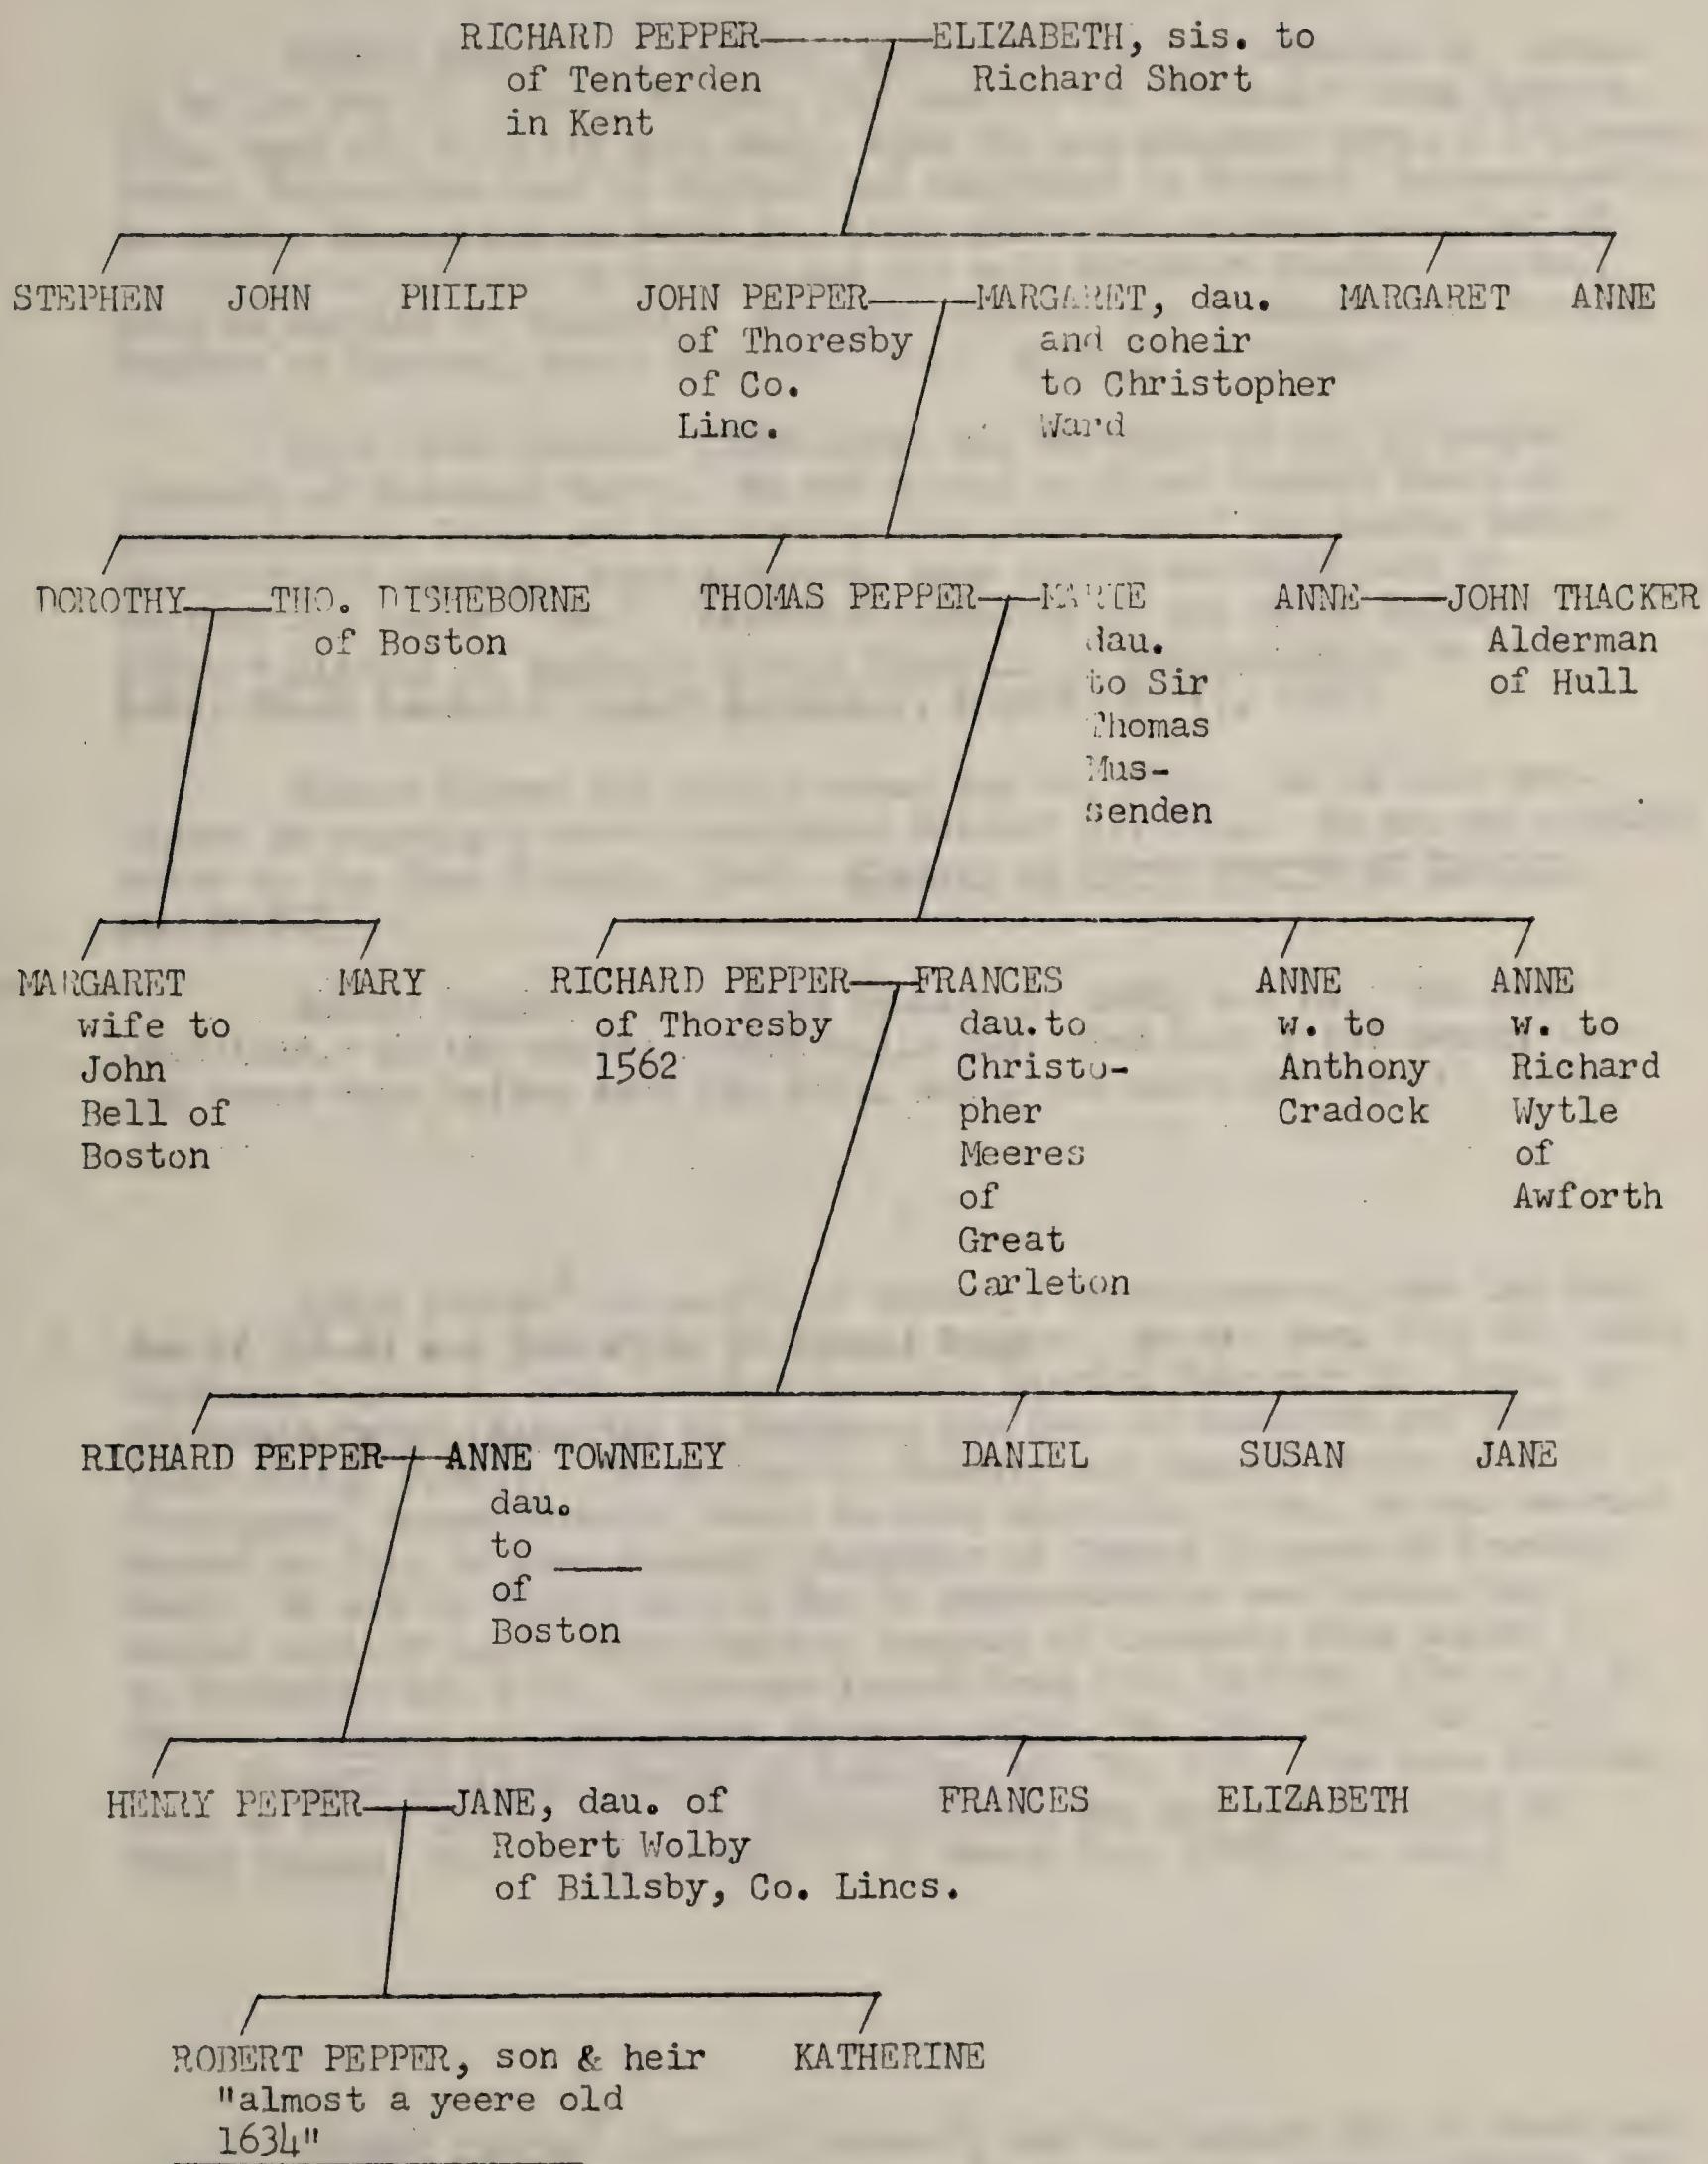

The earliest representative of the family to come to America was RICHARD PEPPER (aged twenty-seven years), who set out from Ipswich for New England in 1634, month of April. He went to Roxbury, Massachusetts. In August of the following year, Francis Pepper (aged sixteen years) embarked in the "Globe of London," bound for Virginia. The Francis Pepper who died in Talbot County, Maryland, in 1723 may perhaps have been no other than this same early emigrant, though if that is true he reached the remarkable age of 104 years.

FAMILY OF RICHARD PEPPER.*

* Visitation of Lincolnshire.

ROBERT PEPPER of Roxbury, Massachusetts, is supposed by Savage to be the son of Richard Pepper, who came in the "Francis" from Ipswich, 1634, aged 27, with his wife Mary, aged 30, and daughter Mary, 3 1/2 years. Robert Pepper was born in England and emigrated to Roxbury, Massachusetts, in 1640. He married on March 14, 1642, Elizabeth Johnson (daughter of Capt. John Johnson of Roxbury and his wife Margaret Scudder Johnson, whom he married in England). Margaret Scudder was a daughter of William Scudder of Darenth, Kent, England. (Ref.: History of Roxbury)

Capt. John Johnson (1600-1659) was Surveyor of All Ye Armyes (Society of Colonial Wars). He was deputy to First General Court of Massachusetts, 1634, and for twenty-five years until his death, member of Artillery Company, kept a tavern, many public meetings held at brother Johnson's. (Ref.: Farmer's Genealogy of the First Settlers; Ellis's History of Roxbury; Pope's Pioneers of Massachusetts by Savage; Emily Clark Landon's Pepper Genealogy, Angola, N. Y., 1932)

Robert Pepper was made freeman May 10, 1643. He is also mentioned as signing a resolution dated October 25, 1644. He was an original donor to the Free Schools. (Ref.: History of First Church of Roxbury, pp. 55 f.)

Robert Pepper's wife died January 5, 1684; and he, "the aged Christian," as the church record calls him, died July 7 following, having three days before made his will, which was probated July 17, 1684.

JACOB PEPPER² (Robert¹) of Roxbury, Massachusetts, was the last son of Robert and Elizabeth (Johnson) Pepper. He was born July 28, 1661; baptized August 4, 1661 (Boston record); married February 10, 1685, to Elizabeth Paine (daughter of Stephen, the Sec. of Rehoboth and Anna [Chickering] Paine). He settled in Roxbury but removed about 1715 to Framingham, Massachusetts, where he died April 10, 1739. He was married second in 1714 to Mary Gleason (daughter of Thomas Gleason of Framingham). He was in Father Rall's War (a Massachusetts war) under the muster roll of Capt. Isaac Clark's company of troopers from August 21 to September 18, 1725. This war lasted from 1722 to 1726. (Ref.: J. H. Temple, History of Framingham, Massachusetts, pp. 186, 280, 303, 403, 667; History of First Church of Roxbury, pp. 76, 125. For more information on Paine genealogy, see Representative Men and Old Families of Rhode Island, Vol. I [Chicago: J. H. Beers Co., 1908], p. 444.)

ROBERT PEPPER³ (Jacob², Robert¹) was the second son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Paine) Pepper. He was born in Framingham, Massachusetts, on March 16, 1687. He kept grammar school in Framingham from 1720-1724 and was covenanted January 29, 1721. A schoolmaster in Sudbury, 1728, he was employed for thirty pounds. He voted in 1720 that the schoolmaster may have the free use of the schoolhouse for himself and family to dwell in the year ensuing; he was retained until the fall of 1724. His wife Sarah was admitted to Framingham Church, July 2, 1721.

Their children were recorded in Framingham as follows:

- ⁴ i. JOSHUA PEPPER, b. Jan. 18, 1720/21.
ii. ROBERT PEPPER, b. Feb. 28, 1722/23.
iii. SARAH PEPPER, b. Apr. 25, 1725.

JOSHUA PEPPER⁴ (Robert³, Jacob², Robert¹), son of Robert and Sarah Pepper of Framingham, Massachusetts, was born January 13, 1720/21* at Framingham. (Ref. Vital Records of Framingham; J. H. Temple, History of Framingham) He died December 28, 1808, at Georgetown, Sussex County, Delaware, where he had lived most of his life and become a very prosperous farmer. He married Elizabeth McCauley, who died September 21, 1811. Their graves are in the old Pepper graveyard located on the present (1935) Thomas B. Pepper farm on Savannah Road, a few hundred yards northeast of the Pennsylvania Railroad station on Kimmey Street, Georgetown, Sussex County, Delaware, and are unmarked but can be located.

* It is fitting that an explanation of the double dates, 1720/21, be made at this point. Double dates occur in the old records only in January, February, and March. They are never found in other months and never after 1752. The system of double-dating resulted from the change in the calendar in 1582. Before that time, the so-called "Julian calendar" was used throughout the Christian world. It was established by Julius Caesar--hence its name. It divided the year into 365 days, plus an extra day every fourth year and was officially adopted at the sitting of the Nicene Council in 325 A. D.

In 1582, Pope Gregory XIII, then head of the Roman Catholic Church, ordered that ten days be dropped out of the calendar to restore the equinox to its accustomed date, March 21. Hence, the decree changed the beginning of the new year from March 25 to January 1. This system, known as the "Gregorian calendar," now prevails, and we are right with the sun. England, however, did not adopt this change until 1752--170 years later--as she was reluctant to accept a new and untried idea until proven to be right. In spite of this difference in the official calendar, many people began to use the Gregorian system. Hence, in many of the early colonial records we find "double dates," generally written, for example, "9 March 1656/57," indicating that while it was officially still 1656, some people considered it as 1657.

 The old Pepper graveyard where our Delaware pioneer ancestors are buried consists of a little over one-quarter acre and is quite an historical place, surrounded (1959) by the town of Georgetown. It is the original private burial lot of the family. Joshua Pepper and his wife, Elizabeth (McCauley) Pepper, were the first of the family to be buried in it. Their graves can be identified by some daffodils a few feet west of the center of the lot. They were followed by many others--but only members of the family. Some Indians (said to be six) were buried in the slight mound in the center. That is why we find the very Joshua Pepper (1720/21-1808) appeared upon the records of Sussex County, Delaware, on March 7, 1764. On that date were recorded two deeds of James Pettyjohn, executor of the will of Richard Pettyjohn of Sussex County, to Joshua Pepper of same. The first of these deeds conveys, for six shillings two pence, a tract of 101 acres in Broadkiln Hundred and another of 106 acres in the same Hundred for $1. The deeds recite that this land was sold by order of the Orphans' Court in 1751 and that Joshua Pepper had been assigned a bond which Robert Warren formerly held.

It has been reported down through the generations of this family that Joshua Pepper ran away from home early in life and came from New England. For a year or two his parents knew nothing of him. When they did hear, they learned that he was near Jamestown, Virginia. From there he later went into Maryland and thence Delaware, where he settled at Georgetown on the Delmarva Peninsula. He was the first pioneer Pepper to settle in Delaware, according to all available records. In 1791 he sold a part of his farm to the town of Georgetown, Delaware.

However, Joshua Pepper was not the first of the name with the County. William Pepper of Worcester County, Maryland (perhaps William Pepper, fifth, son of William Pepper, fourth, who died in 1756, and his wife Ann) in 1751 received a warrant for a tract called "Pepper's Nott," eighty acres, to which were added thirty-nine acres, called "Tobias's Disappointment." It has been reported down through the generations of this family that this William Pepper and Joshua were brothers; and it is more probable that they were related, but all available records fail to furnish proof of it.

In the old Wattson Pepper (son of Joshua) Bible, it is recorded that Joshua Pepper was about eight-three years old when he died. The exactness of this has been cleared up in the above-mentioned information. This Bible was given to Edward W. Pepper of Philadelphia; and when he died in 1935, to David Pepper, son of Byron, who lives near Georgetown, Delaware, and whose son Martin Pepper now (1959) has it.

Joshua Pepper was a resident of Worcester County, Maryland, before he removed to Delaware. In July 1780, he listed as a member of Capt. Handy's company of Snow Hill Battalion of militia. Temple's History of Framingham contains a pedigree of a Pepper family descended from Robert Pepper who lived in Framingham in 1643. In the third generation of that pedigree is Joshua Pepper who was born January 18, 1720/21. This is conclusive proof that the New England family was related to the Peninsula family and that they left New England and settled on the Eastern Shore. There was more intercourse of this kind between the Colonists than the historians have recognized.

center unused--as the family never allowed burials in the Indian graves.

At the Pepper reunion in 1959, Thomas B. Pepper agreed to give this private cemetery to the family and it was accepted. Necessary arrangements are now being made to have it incorporated and to erect an appropriate marker at the graves of Joshua Pepper and his wife. It is also proposed that a low brick wall be placed around the cemetery for protection.

Joshua Pepper made his will August 12, 1806. In it he named his wife Elizabeth; sons Levin, John, Eli, and Wattson; daughters Rebecca Coston, Ann Prettyman, Tabby Torbert, and Betsy Torbert; also, grandchildren George Smith Pepper, Prettyman Pepper, and Burton Pepper. The will does make clear whose sons these were--George Smith Pepper, son of Wattson; and Prettyman and Burton Pepper, sons of Eli. He lived and died at the spot where Herb Tyndal's widow now lives (1959). Thomas B. Pepper has the door from Joshua's original house.

Below is a copy of the last will and testament of Joshua Pepper, 1720/21-1808:

In the name of God Amen I Joshua Pepper of Sussex County and state of Delaware being weak in body but of a sound disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament. First, I recommend my Soul to God who gave it me hoping to obtain everlasting Salvation through the merits of our Lord Savior Jesus Christ Amen, and for such worldly goods as it pleased Almighty God to endow me with I give and devise in manner and form following Viz:-

Item 1st--I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Pepper, the plantation and lands lying on the southernmost side of the State Road with all premises and benefits thereunto belonging during her natural life, the lands which I give to my son Levin Pepper excepted.

I also give unto my wife Elizabeth Pepper all my personal and movable property during her natural life.

Item 2nd--I give and bequeath unto my son Levin Pepper all the plantation where he now lives and the lands to be divided to begin at a Red Oak bounder standing on the West side of a swamp near an orchard belonging to the heirs of Nath'l Waples to run with direct line to a white oak bounder standing on the south side of or near the State Road to him and his heirs forever.

Item 3rd--I give and bequeath unto my son John Pepper all the lands and premises lying on the northernmost side of the State Road which I bought of Robert Warren during his natural life and no longer and then after his decease to my son Levin Pepper and his heirs forever excepting two acres to be laid off in a square adjoining the Town land line on one side and State Road on the other side which I give to my Grandson George Smith Pepper, and further my will and desire is that after my son John deceased and Levin or his heirs come to possess the land in this item mentioned that they pay unto my grandsons Prettyman Pepper and Burton Pepper, $50 each in the whole one hundred dollars to them or their heirs.

Item 4th--I give and bequeath unto my son Eli Pepper, one shilling to him and his heirs. My reason for so doing is that I think he has had his proportionable part all to one hundred dollars which I have given to his sons Prettyman and Burton.

Item 5th--I give and bequeath unto my son Wattson Pepper one shilling and no more.

Item 6th--I give and bequeath unto my grandson George Smith Pepper all the lands and plantation where I now live, from the line mentioned to Levin, with all the benefits and premises thereon belonging after my wife Elizabeth deceased, and also, I give to my grandson George Smith Pepper two acres of land in a square adjoining the Town Line and State Road after my son John's decease, to him and his heirs forever and in case George Smith Pepper should die before he becomes of age my will and desire is that the property mentioned in this item descend to the next male heir lawfully begotten of Wattson Pepper and in case there should be no male heirs to descend to the female heirs lawfully begotten of his body.

Item 7th--I give and bequeath after my wife Elizabeth deceased to my four daughters, Rebecca Coston, Ann Prettyman, Tabby Torbert and Betsy Torbert, and their heirs all my movable property to be equally divided between them four to them and their heirs and no more. I also do hereby nominate and appoint my son Wattson Pepper my sole Executor of this last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twelfth day of August Anno Domini 1806.

Dear Cousin;

By this you will be informed I am not in good health nor have not been since I arrived here, owing to severe bruise I received in one of my eyes, but have got employment here, and hope these lines will find you and your family in good health and prosperity.

I have seen Aunt Rebecca Coston after a long search. I found her in Kensington about three miles from where I board, and Joshua lives over in Schuylkill and have not seen him yet. Benton has ELI PEPPER⁵ (Joshua⁴, Robert³, Jacob², Robert¹) was born April 28, 1770 and died November 3, 1856 at Georgetown, Delaware. He married (first) Ebby Prettyman. His second wife was Chloe Marvel (daughter of Capt. Philip Marvel, the son of Philip P. Marvel), who was born May 10, 1782 and died September 28, 1843. Capt. Philip Marvel married Comfort Rodney (1738-1802), who was a sister of Caesar Rodney, who was the famous one in Delaware.

Eli Pepper (1770-1856) resided in Worcester County, Maryland, before coming into Delaware. In July 1780 he was a member of Capt. Sprence's company of the Snow Hill Militia Battalion. His father, Joshua Pepper, was a member of the same Battalion but was in Capt. Handy's company. In the Maryland census of 1790, Eli Pepper is given as the head of a Worcester County family consisting of himself and three females. He appears to have been twice married. In the will of Thomas Prettyman, probated in Sussex County, Delaware, October 26, 1790, a daughter Ezebel Pepper is named. Two years later, February 10, 1792, Elizabeth Prettyman of Sussex County, widow, conveyed to her daughters Agnes Coffin (wife of Vehemiah Coffin), Ebby Pepper (wife of Eli), and Hester Warren (wife of Kendle Warren) a number of sheep and hogs. There is not much doubt that this Elizabeth Prettyman was the widow of Thomas Prettyman who died in 1790 and that the daughter Ezebel Pepper and Ebby Pepper (wife of Eli) are one and the same person. It is known that Chloe Marvel, daughter of Capt. Philip Marvel, was also a wife of Eli Pepper. She was not born until May 10, 1782, and was doubtless the second wife. She died September 28, 1843. Both he and his wife Chloe were buried on the old Joshua W. Pepper (son of Eli) farm located near the Sussex County almshouse on the old State Road

* Edward W. Pepper thought he located two of this John Pepper's grandsons--one in Steubenville, Ohio, and one in Youngstown, Ohio, who is with an undertaker and listed in the telephone directory. When talking with him over the telephone, he said his grandfather came from the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

three miles south of Georgetown, Delaware. It has no marker and the field is today (1959) in cultivation.

From the many acres of land which he owned, it is believed that Eli Pepper was a very well-known and prosperous farmer.

THE DAVID PEPPER (1805-1889) HOMESTEAD*
THE ELI PEPPER OF D (1848-1939) HOMESTEAD
THE CARLTON D. PEPPER (1893-) HOMESTEAD

The above house is located two miles southwest of Georgetown, Delaware, on the Shortley Road. The east end of the home was built first, the west end being added several years later. David Pepper lived here practically all of his life, and all of his seven children were born and raised here. It was the home of his son Eli all of his life. His grandson, Carlton D. Pepper, was also born and raised at the homestead.

The original, large, open fireplace, with its cranes, pot hooks, and wide hearth for baking johnny-cakes, and other items of long ago are still there. Bricks in the pavement and milk house were made from clay on the farm by David Pepper in his own brick kiln. (Eli Pepper of D said that his grandfather Eli often told him that he could remember coming into the farmhouse kitchen on cold winter mornings to find Indians huddled around the fireplace keeping warm and waiting for a member of the family to feed them.--C. D. P.)

* Although this is the original David Pepper homestead, his father, Eli Pepper (1770-1856), periodically lived here, especially after the death of his wife in 1843.

DAVID PEPPER⁶ (Eli⁵, Joshua⁴, Robert³, Jacob², Robert¹) was born on May 4, 1805, and died November 6, 1889. On January 10, 1833, he married Naomi Warrington, the daughter of Joseph (born 1785; died 1829) and Ann Jefferson Warrington. Naomi Warrington Pepper was born on February 3, 1812, and died October 2, 1886. She was a descendant of Thomas Jefferson, third President of the United States.

David Pepper (1805-1889), son of Eli Pepper by his second wife, Chloe Marvel, lived in Georgetown Hundred, Sussex County, Delaware. At the height of his farming career, he owned over 1,000 acres of land in Sussex County. Slaves were bought to do the work, and at one time he had about nine of them at the old Pepper homestead, otherwise known as "Small Fields Farm," where he lived all of his life.

He and his wife are buried in Union Cemetery, Georgetown, Delaware. The inscription on his tombstone reads as follows:

Come all my friends as you pass by
Behold the place where I do lie
As you are now so once was I
Remember, you are born to die.

Farm") two miles southwest of Georgetown, Del.; m. Bedford Bruce Boyd, June 10, 1892, whom she met in Philadelphia, Penna. They went to Nebraska, and she only returned home to her parents once, due to the great distance in those days, after she went west. (My father, Eli Pepper, often told me what a fine and most attractive lady she was and one who unhesitatingly assisted her brothers in breaking up new land, particularly the field just north of the old Pepper homestead.--C. D. P.) She was vivacious and very aggressive. She died early in life in Nebraska and was

January 17, 1887, from Georgetown, Delaware.

Dear Lydia,

I received your letter of the fourth one day last week and was glad to hear from you all. But, was sorry you are all unwell. Hope you are well or better ere this.

I do feel lost without your Mother. She had been with me so long. She always cared so and took care of everything. Now it falls on me and I am not used to it. I am getting along much better than I thought I would at first. My Children and Grandchildren are very kind to me. There is most always some one of them with me to keep me company and do for me. Mary E. Lingo came to see me on Sunday, the second day of January 1887 and staid until Saturday the 15th. She and William Lingo were here today a little while. Harriett Ann was here Sunday the 9th day and on Saturday 15th, Josiah and Harriett Ann went to New Castle County to see his brother, Peter, who is sick. I have my bed in the sitting room and Sarah Lizzie makes hers on the sofa. She is as good to me as she can be.

Mr. Boyd sent me several newspapers the first of the year and I learned more from them about the West than I ever knew before. I think Nebraska one of the finest countries in the United States. Your children will have a big advantage over your brothers and sisters. I think a child to grow up and settle down in that fine country would be much better off with nothing to begin with than the same child would be here with thousands to begin with in our poor country. You make so much of everything out there. We have no show now-a-days. We used to do pretty well before you got so many R.Rs. out there. I believe if I was young and was going West, I would start for the Black Hills. I think it must be a nice place where there is so much mettle.

Charles' children have got the measles. Lydia, make home pleasant for Mr. Boyd and the children. Your Mother always made home pleasant for me and I think for all of her children.

What is David and Naomi going to buy with these New Year's presents, you all being sick when you wrote? I shall be very anxious to hear from you, so write soon. We have 8 hogs to kill, yet. We killed a beef last week that butchered 932 lbs. We sold 3 quarters of him and kept one. We are having very fine weather now. We have had pretty cold weather this winter. No more at present but remember.

Most affectionately,
Father
(David Pepper)

buried there. He died Dec. 1929 in Temple, Tex., after his son's family took care of him during ill health for nineteen years. (I have a picture of him when he was young.--C. D. P.) Bedford Bruce and Lydia Pepper Boyd had two children:

- i. Henrietta Boyd, b. Nov. 9, 1883; d. Apr. 14, 1885, at the old Pepper homestead and was buried in the David Pepper lot in Union Cemetery, Georgetown, Del., where there is a marker over her grave. (I have a picture of her.--C. D. P.)
- ii. David Bruce Boyd, Jr., b. about 1880. (His dau. told me in 1958 when I saw them that he was about 77 years old. On Mar. 10, 1958, I called on him at his nice home at 309 N. Main St., Temple, Tex., in the heart of town. Although he had been seriously ill for several months, he still was quite humorous. At that time, he did not seem to be improving in health, according to his family.--C. D. P.) David Bruce Boyd, Jr., was married twice; his second wife was living in 1958. Highly honored and respected by his townspeople, he was in the retail furniture business. David Bruce Boyd, Jr., had one dau. by his first wife (none by the second):

JOSHUA W. PEPPER⁶ (Eli⁵, Joshua⁴, Robert³, Jacob², Robert¹) was born January 19, 1808, and died October 28, 1873. He married Hettie Jane Warrington, daughter of Joseph and Ann (Jefferson) Warrington, on December 4, 1832. He is one of the three brothers who married sisters.

Joshua Pepper taught a "pay school" in Georgetown, Delaware, from 1835 to 1838. This school was in an old building which stood at the present site (1942) of George Swain's drug store on East Market Street. About 1839, he moved from his father's house, which was on the "Old State Road," where he farmed and kept a general store until about 1865. He also ran a store at Piney Grove. The former-mentioned store and house were about the distance of a block from the Branch Ditch and a full block from the road leading off from Hickory Pole to the Old Road leading into the Old Gumboro Road. At the time this old part of the house was moved, it was then considered to be over seventy-five years old. It was on this old farm that his father and mother were buried in a private family lot. This old farm was formerly owned by an old Prettyman family and extended as far south as Bethesda Church on both sides of the road. About 1867, part of this farm was sold to R. S. Johnson, Stockley, Delaware.

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA PEPPERS

MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA PEPPERS

JOHN PEPPER was transported to Northampton County, Virginia, in 1641. James Pepper came to Maryland in 1640. Another arrival in Maryland was Issac Pepper, who was established as a cooper in Somerset County before 1706. Also another one, William Pepper, reached the same Province in 1677.

The JOHN PEPPER who arrived in Northampton County in 1641 was married prior to 1658 to a wife Margaret. In the latter year we find her deposing in court that she has heard Edward Sotherne say, "Ye God was old, ignorant, childish, and foolish." In 1662, a son, Edward 2nd, was born to John Pepper and Margaret. Though no records of the events were entered in the registers of Hungars Parish, other children unquestionably were born, for in April 1675 we find John Pepper proving his right to 300 acres of land for transporting himself; Margaret, his wife; Tobias and Richard, his sons; and Margaret and Mary, his daughters, into the Province of Maryland. John Pepper is recorded as living in Poquadonort on Hundred, Somerset County, Maryland, in 1722. The son Edward had died prior to the date of this removal to the Upper Province. Of the other sons, Richard 2nd early disappears from the records of the County. He is probably the Richard Pepper who in 1745 received a grant of 332 acres in the County of Surry in Virginia.

The third son, TOBIAS, frequently appears upon the records of Somerset County. In the Somerset County Marriage Banus is an entry dated August 8, 1676, of Tobias Piper to Mary Simpson. This undoubtedly is intended for Tobias Pepper, as no other record of a Tobias Piper anywhere appears. He died there in 1720, leaving a wife Mary (Simpson?), four girls and two boys, as follows: Tobias, born about 1691; William, born about 1694; Margaret; Elizabeth; Mary; and Tabitha. To his son Tobias, he bequeathed a 200-acre tract called "St. Leonard's" and another tract called "Beeding." To William he bequeathed "Millbury Heath," also a 200-acre tract. To both sons together he left an island in Accomac County, Virginia.

Of these sons, WILLIAM PEPPER did not outlive his father. His will was proved in Worcester County in June 1727; in it he named a son William, to whom he left the home tract of "Aquelotts," and daughters Mary and Elizabeth.

WILLIAM PEPPER (4), son of William (3) who died in 1727, removed from the Eastern Shore of Maryland; and in 1736 we find him a resident of Salem County, New Jersey. Prior to the date of his death in 1756, he returned to Worcester County, Maryland; and it is there his will is proved. In it he named his wife Ann and sons John and William. Ann, the widow, was still living in Worcester County in 1770, and in June of that year she made a deed with her son William for part of the "Millbury Heath Tract."

The records furnish no further information regarding John (5) and William Pepper (5), the sons of William (4) who died in 1756 and his wife Ann. Where they spent the remainder of their lives after 1769 and 1770, the last years in which their names appear upon the records of Worcester County, is entirely a matter of conjecture. The period immediately succeeding the Revolution marked the removal of hundreds of Peninsula families to the western countries. They may have gone west, or they may perhaps have gone to Salem County, New Jersey, where their father had spent a portion of his life.

TOBIAS PEPPER (3), the son of Tobias (2) who died in 1720 and his wife Mary, inherited the tracts of "St. Leonard's" and "Beeding" from his father. In addition to these, he received one-half interest in an island in Accomac County, Virginia. In 1752, we find him making a deed, in which he is joined by a wife Patience, of fifty acres of the "St. Leonard's" tract to his nephew, William Pepper (4th).

SOLOMON PEPPER had at least four children and perhaps more. In 1796 he deeded to his son Zachariah (Sacear' he appears on one record) a part of the "Millbury Heath" tract. In the year following, he deeded his entire estate to his three daughters: Sarah Prewitt, Martha Pepper, and Tabitha Young.

ZACHARIAH PEPPER, son of Solomon, was married in Worcester County, Maryland, April 3, 1813, to Anne Lamberson. Nothing further is known of him or of the descendants of this line. Owing to the confusing use of the names "Pepper" and "Piper" in the county records, it is a question as to whether or not it will ever be possible to untangle the relationships of the Pepper family in Maryland and Virginia. The forms "Pepper," "Pipper," and "Piper" will sometimes be found in a single document where it is perfectly evident that it is intended for the same person. It is clear that there were two distinct families, the Peppers and the Pipers, early upon the Peninsula; but, owing to the carelessness or ignorance of the county clerks, the records of the two families have become inextricably mixed.

Especially is this true in the case of Isaac Pepper, a cooper, who as early as 1706 is party to a deed in Somerset County, Maryland. By this deed he secured from Francis Makemie, the first Presbyterian clergyman in America, a moiety of a tract of land on the south side of Pocomoke River called "ffowlser Choice" containing 500 acres. The moiety so purchased was called "Convoy." In 1739 and 1742, we find Isaac Piper (sic) of Somerset County, Maryland, cooper, and his wife Temperance conveying to Joseph Stephenson portions of "ffookses Choyce" which, originally a 100-acre tract (plus 437 acres), was granted to said Piper (sic) and "Timber Swamp," originally a 100-acre tract. Nothing further is known of him, though it is more than probable that he died on the Peninsula and left descendants.

PHILADELPHIA PEPPERS

PHILADELPHIA PEPPERS

The following family and all other branches of the Philadelphia family are descended from one JOHAN HEINRICH PFEFFER (born near Strasburg, Germany, January 5, 1739), who with ninety-one other Germans embarked from Rotterdam in the ship "Minerva" for Philadelphia. He was qualified as a subject of the British Crown at that city on October 13, 1769. He located at Schaffertown, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, but in 1774 returned to Philadelphia and thereafter made his home in that city. The German name of "Pfeffer" became anglicized to "Pepper," and he was known in Philadelphia as HENRY PEPPER.

Henry Pepper built a prosperous brewing business, acquired much valuable real estate, and became one of the prominent businessmen of the city. When he died* in that city on March 11, 1808, his son GEORGE PEPPER (1779-1846) took over the family brewery and developed one of the city's largest fortunes. It is reported that Horace Binney received $10,000 for drawing up his will. His executors were George Seckel, William Pepper, and his son-in-law Isaac Norris. This George Pepper contributed to the University of Pennsylvania, and throughout the course of the nineteenth century his children and grandchildren contributed heavily to free public libraries and many of the city's hospitals.

GEORGE PEPPER (1779-1846) married Mary Catherine Seckel (1780-1861). They had six children, as follows:

- i. Henry Pepper; m. Sally Norris.
- ii. David Pepper; m. Emily Platt. (See page 68.)
- iii. Mary Pepper; m. Isaac Norris.
- iv. William Pepper; m. Sarah Platt. (See page 68.)
- v. Catherine Pepper; m. Emile Blaise Gardette.
- vi. Frederick Seckel Pepper; m. Adeliase Worrell.

* His wife Catherine survived him.

* I regret exceedingly the lack of so many names in this index. In a genealogy of such magnitude, where there are hundreds upon hundreds of names, it is impossible to include all. However, I have tried to give the names in each generation so that it may be easy for everyone to find his ancestor, his father, or his own name.--C. D. P.
